Chairs

Carès

The Carès chair embodies the seamless fusion of elegance and comfort. Designed by Kris Van Puyvelde with a thoughtful balance of timeless aesthetics and innovative craftsmanship, this chair invites you to experience the finest in outdoor living. The choice between a natural teak or sleek aluminum frame ensures that the Carès chair effortlessly complements any setting, whether by the pool or on a sunlit terrace.

With its woven backrest, available in Sage Green, Anthracite, or Pebble, this chair not only offers visual texture but also subtle luxury. Each element of the Carès chair is crafted to ensure durability, allowing you to enjoy its beauty and comfort for years to come. The modular design, combined with a new low lounge version, enhances its versatility, adapting to your evolving outdoor space.

Folia

The Folia Collection by Royal Botania stands as a testament to the seamless marriage of artistic inspiration and comfort. Capturing the intricate patterns of leaf veins, the Folia chair is more than a seating option—it is a centrepiece that commands attention. Its meticulous construction mirrors the essence of fine craftsmanship, with each piece standing as a dedication to the pursuit of perfection.

Constructed from slender stainless-steel tubes, the Folia collection boasts frames finished in an array of subtle hues, each chosen to complement the outdoor palette of sophisticated spaces. These pieces do not just fill a space; they create an ambiance of elegance and tranquillity. The introduction of the Folia rocking chair and the low lounge chair invites one to experience comfort in motion or in serene repose, making every moment a luxurious escape.

Ostrea

Inspired by the elegant simplicity of the sea, the Ostrea Chair, named after the Latin word for ‘oyster’, is a testament to the creative vision of designer Mathias De Ferm. Imagined perhaps over a meal of fresh oysters, these chairs capture the organic contours of its marine namesake through exceptional craftsmanship and innovative design. Each stainless-steel tube is meticulously rolled, bent, and welded, showcasing the high level of artistry involved.

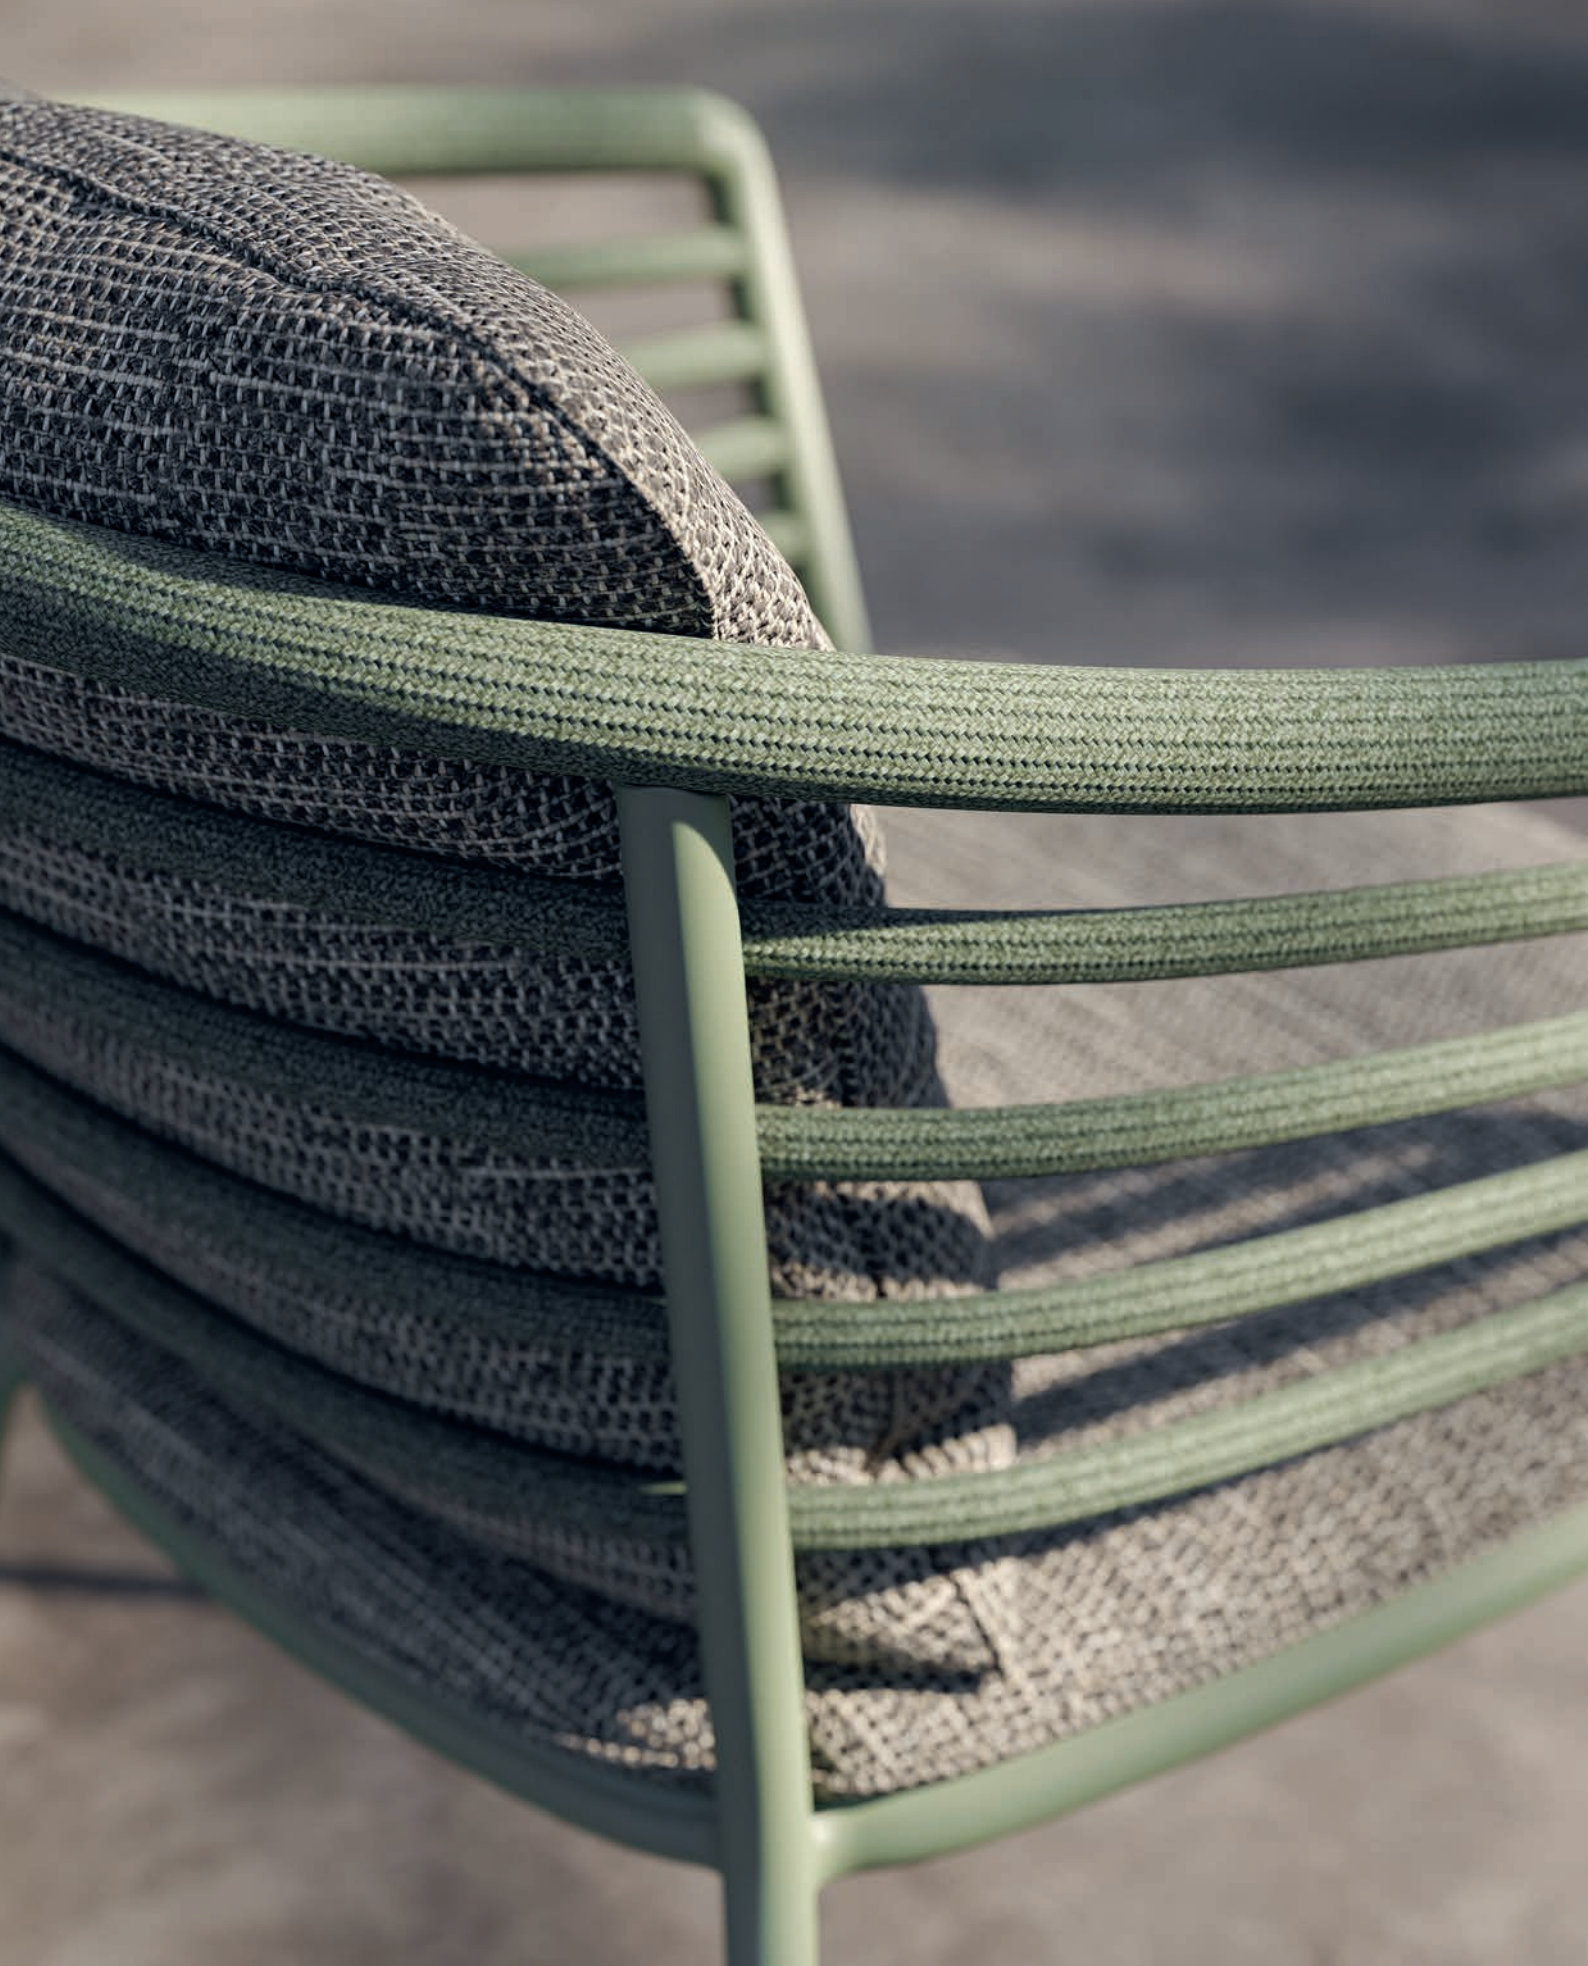

The Ostrea offers two cushion options: a rounded seat that leaves the back exposed or full surface padding that mirrors the oyster’s unique shape.

The Archy Chair combines modern design with thoughtful craftsmanship, making it the ideal outdoor companion. Its distinctive sleeves wrap gracefully around the tubular backrest, offering both warmth and durability, while withstanding all natural elements effortlessly.

With a Batyline seat and the option to add a cushion for extra comfort, the Archy invites you to sit back and relax. The frame, available in Pebble, Bronze, and a new Sage hue, harmonizes beautifully with the fiber and strap options, allowing for a combination that reflects your personal style.

Designed to blend seamlessly with any outdoor environment, the Archy Chair is where practicality meets sophistication, offering a balance of comfort and timeless design.

Archy

Exes

A director's chair, elevated by Royal Botania's signature elegance. The Exes Collection, envisioned by Kris Van Puyvelde, showcases bold X-shaped frames crafted from cast aluminum, exuding strength and sophistication. Paired with sleek, tapered teak armrests, the design strikes a perfect balance between modern form and natural warmth.

For added comfort and a touch of personalization, the chairs can feature a teak backrest and seat. The distinctive X-shaped cutouts in the backrest not only enhance the visual appeal but also serve as functional attachment points for plush cushions. This seamless blend of aesthetics and practicality ensures the Exes Collection stands out, offering both refined style and luxurious comfort in any outdoor space.

The Fensi chair boasts a light and airy appearance, thanks to its innovatively designed backrest. This backrest, while resembling a braided pattern, is actually crafted from a thin stainless-steel grid, elegantly wrapped with string to maintain the illusion of natural woven rope without sacrificing ergonomic support. This design ensures both visual appeal and long-term seating comfort.

Fensi

Strappy

In designing the Strappy Collection, Kris Van Puyvelde reimagined outdoor seating with sleek lines and meticulous attention to detail. The collection's signature straps, elegantly wrapped around the frame, create a distinctive aesthetic while ensuring resilience and comfort, no matter the weather.

Crafted from premium materials, the Strappy Collection balances lightweight elegance with lasting durability. The frame, available in a range of refined finishes, offers the flexibility to customize each piece to perfectly complement your outdoor space. Whether grouped around a dining table or used as standalone seating, the Strappy Collection integrates seamlessly into any setting.

With its contemporary silhouette and understated luxury, the Strappy Collection invites you to experience a perfect blend of style and comfort, redefining outdoor living in its purest form.

Calypso

The Calypso Collection features a selection of outdoor seating options, each piece showcases a durable teak base paired with a stainless-steel backrest with padded upholstery. These removable covers are designed for easy maintenance, simplifying cleaning and seasonal storage.

Available in a wide range of textiles, the collection offers extensive colour customization options to reflect any mood or style. Additionally, the collection features a “Kris Kross” weaving pattern, crafted from synthetic outdoor fibre, providing a choice between woven and textile backrests.

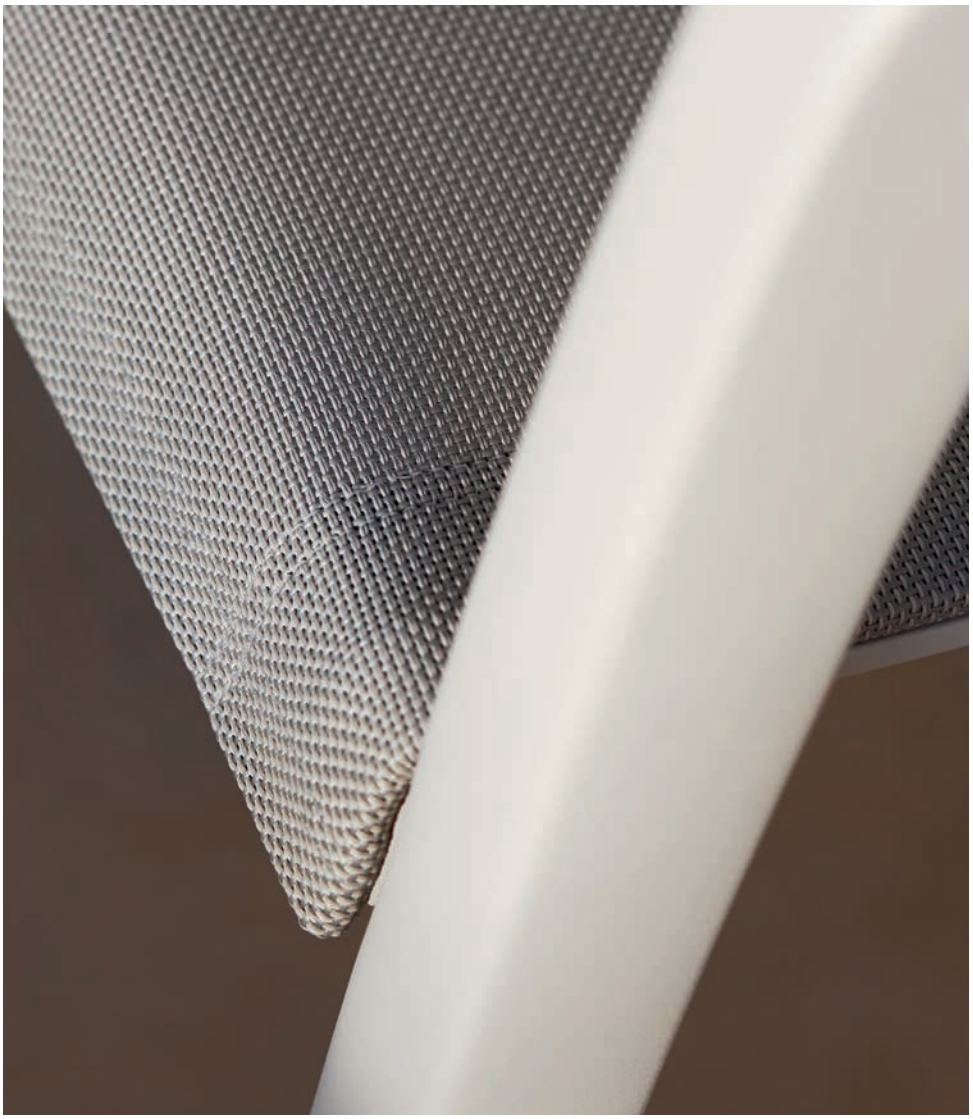

Jive

Discover the versatility of the Jive Collection, where chairs seamlessly blend into both modern and classic settings. Available in three unique material combinations, the Jive chair can be customized with either a teak or aluminum backrest, and the seat is offered in weaving, aluminum, or Batyline options. For added comfort, you can choose to add cushions, or opt for the sleek, cushion-free Batyline version, ensuring a perfect fit for your style and needs. Whether you're looking for functionality, elegance, or a mix of both, the Jive Collection adapts effortlessly to any space.

Designed by Kris Van Puyvelde, the Mambo Chair and Mambo Low Chair offer a perfect balance of comfort and style. With their rounded wooden frames and plush cushions, they bring a welcoming elegance to any outdoor space.

The Mambo Chair is perfect for dining, while the Mambo Low Chair offers a relaxed lounge experience. Both are customizable with luxurious fabrics, ensuring they complement your personal style.

Timeless in design and rich in comfort, the Mambo chairs elevate any outdoor setting with understated luxury.

Qt

Some say the QT range gets its name because the items look ‘cute’. Others have suggested it is because the chairs, loungers and footrests are ideal for spending ‘Quality Time’. Both are accurate! Each QT piece is an exercise in minimalism.
The stainless steel profiles (available in a brushed, electropolished, or powder coated finish), look notably slim. Obviously they have been designed to provide the level of strength and stability that Royal Botania stands for.
What’s more, all the QT chairs and loungers are stackable. No wonder so many of our customers are ‘Quite Taken’ with them.

Tables

Styletto

As its name suggests, the Styletto Table stands with the same poise and elegance as a fine stiletto heel. Its slender, tapered legs bring a sense of grace and lightness to any space, while offering the strength and stability needed for outdoor living. Available in a range of heights and finishes, the Styletto Table seamlessly adapts to both intimate settings and larger gatherings.

Crafted with meticulous attention to detail, this table blends minimalist design with luxurious materials, ensuring both functionality and style. Whether as a striking dining table or a low lounge piece, the Styletto Table effortlessly complements your outdoor environment, adding a touch of refined elegance that is both timeless and modern.

With its sleek silhouette and enduring charm, the Styletto Table is as much a statement of style as it is a piece of functional design.

RICARDO BOFILL

Designed by Kris Van Puyvelde, the Regaliz Table stands as the epitome of outdoor luxury. Its striking oval-shaped teak bases support a glass top, available in unique finishes such as dark green, dark brown, and pebble—each creating a distinct visual impact. The glass, crafted with a special melting technique, adds an exclusive texture, setting the Regaliz apart in the outdoor market.
Available in sizes ranging from 310 up to 490 cm, the table's modular design features trapezium-shaped sections, offering both grandeur and flexibility. Whether hosting an intimate gathering or a large outdoor event, the Regaliz Table delivers unmatched elegance and functionality, becoming the centerpiece of any sophisticated outdoor space.

Regaliz

The Conix Table Collection is a masterclass in architectural finesse, featuring striking conical bases crafted from fibre-reinforced Ductal® concrete. These robust foundations are presented in two distinct hues: a warm desert beige that imparts a subtle elegance, and a cool industrial grey that offers a sleek, modern appeal. The collection includes an array of tabletop shapes, including the intriguing squircle, each polished to enhance tactile and visual pleasure.

The refined design continues with the variety of available heights, ensuring that the Conix tables are as versatile as they are visually compelling, perfect for transforming any outdoor or indoor space into a sophisticated dining area. The combination of durable materials and thoughtful design makes the Conix collection an exemplary choice for enduring style and functionality

Conix

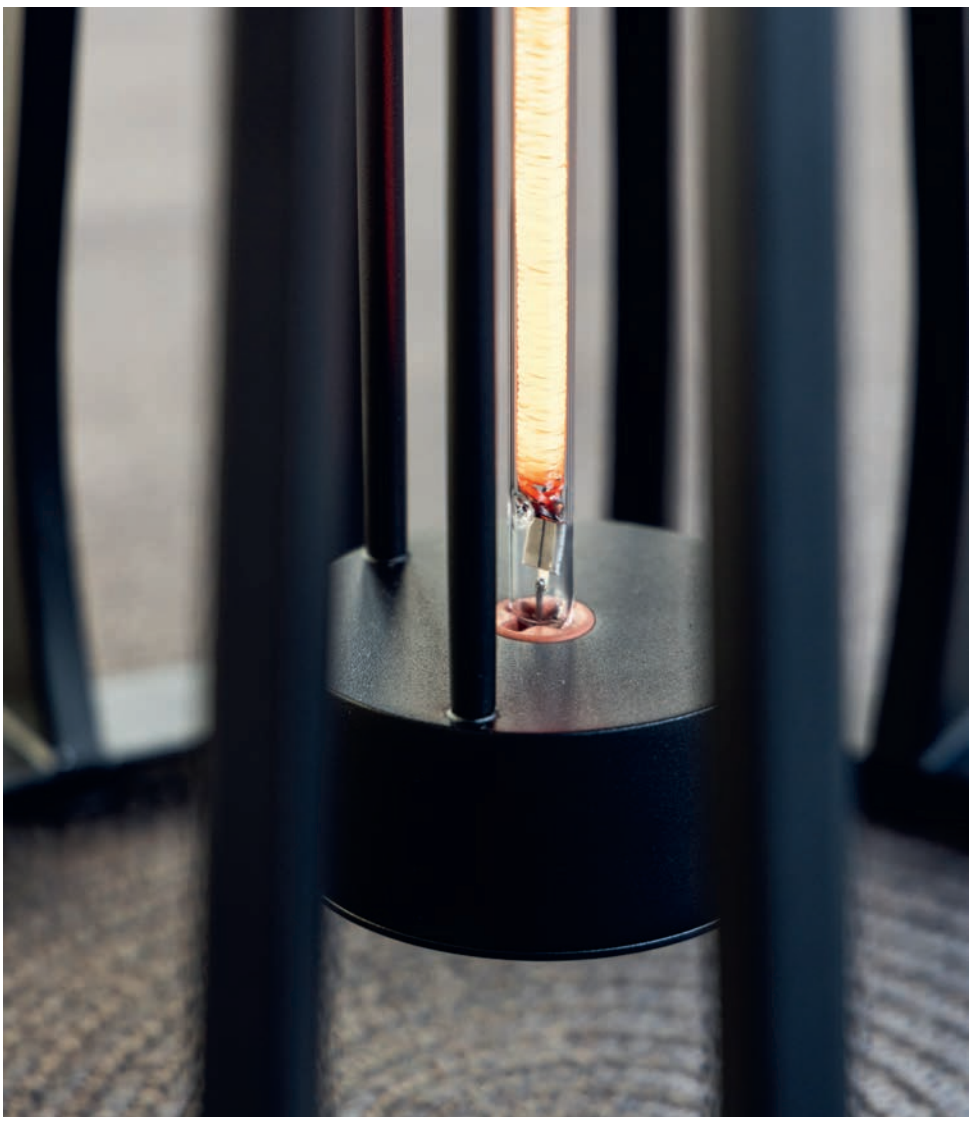

As part of the renowned Conix collection, this side table showcases the innovative design and durability for which Royal Botania is celebrated, making it a refined addition to any outdoor setting. The concrete base is available in two hues, grey and beige, while the top comes in a choice of lava stone, ceramic, concrete or teak, offering versatility and style for various design preferences.

Furniz

The Furniz table designed by Kris Van Puyvelde, redefines outdoor living with its elegant design and functional innovation. Featuring a base with an integrated heating element, this table is designed to extend the warmth of summer well into cooler months. Ideal for alfresco dining or outdoor gatherings, the Furniz table combines modern sophistication with the comfort of a heated base, allowing you to enjoy the outdoors in style, no matter the season.

Butler

The Butler Collection by Royal Botania offers versatility with an elegant frame crafted from coated stainless steel, available in nine different heights to suit any setting, from lounge areas to dining spaces. The collection provides an array of tabletop options, including ceramic, enamelled lava stone, and teak, allowing you to personalize each piece to complement your outdoor style.

A highlight of the collection, the Butler dining table, features a sleek central base that maximizes legroom for a truly comfortable dining experience. Blending flexibility with modern design, the Butler Collection brings effortless style and function to any outdoor space, adapting with ease to your lifestyle.

The very first side table Royal Botania launched nearly 30 years ago was called Butler. Today, we've recycled the name and adapted the solid teak with a coated stainless steel frame available in four colours and two heights.

There is a very wide array of materials for the table tops. In addition to solid teak, there are also nine different ceramics, and six colours of enamelled lava stones.

Providing extensive customization options for specific design and functional requirements, these side tables are a nice match to just about any low seating set or lounge combination.

Zidiz

This collection stands out for its exquisite craftsmanship, particularly showcased in its large wooden slats crafted from the highest quality wood available. These meticulously chosen materials ensure that the Zidiz collection boasts some of the most beautiful wood table surfaces in the world. A prime example is the extendable ZIDIZ 320 table, offering versatility with its adjustable length ranging from 220 to 330 cm, catering to varying numbers of guests with ease.

Exes

Complementing the Exes chairs, the collection includes tables featuring the same X-shaped legs in the form of a tripod for round tabletops and four-legged frames for a variety of oval-shaped tabletops. Available in a selection of ceramic finishes, the Exes Collection seamlessly integrates into contemporary settings, enhancing both indoor and outdoor environments with its industrial yet elegant design.

U-nite

The U-Nite collection seamlessly blends architectural design with warm aesthetics, offering a variety of teak or powder-coated aluminum frames paired with floating ceramic or teak tabletops. The ceramic tops fit perfectly within the frame thanks to their angled design, creating a sleek and polished look. Available in multiple sizes and shapes, this collection's clean lines and refined style make it an exceptional choice for contemporary outdoor dining areas.

The Taboela Collection boasts one of the most expansive selections of tables available, ensuring a perfect match for any terrace, large or small. Ranging from 80 to 340 cm in length, Taboela tables come with frames in either stainless steel or coated aluminium, tailored to suit diverse aesthetic and functional needs. Choose from a variety of exquisite top materials including glass, ceramic, or teak to complement your outdoor decor. Notably, the collection features two sizes of clever extension tables, making Taboela the ideal choice for those who value flexibility and style. With Taboela, experience the luxury of finding the perfect table for every outdoor setting.

Taboela

Inspired by the classic English gate-leg table, designer Mathias De Ferm reimagines the concept with the Traverse table, blending convenience with modern design. Its flexible structure allows you to use it partially open for smaller gatherings or fully extended for larger groups. With an easy-to-use sliding support system and a slim profile when folded, it's perfect for adaptable, stylish outdoor spaces.

Parasols

Palma

Inspired by the elegant movement of palm leaves, Kris Van Puyvelde designed the Palma parasol to seamlessly blend beauty with pioneering innovation.
Winner of the prestigious Best-of-Best Red Dot Design Award, the Palma is the world's first pneumatic parasol, allowing it to open and close effortlessly with a simple hand gesture.
Every detail has been meticulously thought through—there are no visible screws or mechanisms, creating a clean, minimalist aesthetic.
Its organic form, combined with a flexible rotating base, ensures the Palma can follow the sun's path, offering optimal comfort throughout the day.
Crafted from durable, weather-resistant materials, the Palma is more than a parasol—it's a masterpiece of design and functionality, elevating any outdoor space with its effortless sophistication.

Shady

Royal Botania takes the traditional parasol to new heights with the Shady, setting a new standard for outdoor luxury. With its intricately designed framework, cast stainless steel fittings, and premium acrylic covers, the Shady transcends conventional designs to become the epitome of sophisticated outdoor living. The Slim version maintains the elegant aesthetics of the original while offering a sleeker profile, perfect for more compact spaces.

Oazz

A successor to the innovative Palma parasol, the Oazz, designed by Kris Van Puyvelde, continues to revolutionize outdoor parasol with its automatic opening system and refined aesthetics.
Its straightforward framework and unique cover placement between the ribs offer a minimalist look at a more accessible price point.

Bloom

Reinvented for greater functionality and succeeding the acclaimed Palma, Bloom is equipped with a lever-operated spindle system enabling larger canopy sizes. This advanced mechanism aligns the parasols supporting ribs into a unified, organically shaped strutless structure, mirroring the elegance of a flower in bloom.
Available in various sizes and configurations, with aluminium ribs and a stainless-steel pole offered in multiple finishes, the Bloom merges sculptural aesthetics with practical sophistication to enhance any outdoor environment.
